

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law protections. Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law has greatly improved my time at home. I used to receive 2 to 4 calls a night, mostly during the dinner hour. Now I only receive one a month at the most. What a relief. Telemarketers have no right to disturb me in the privacy of my home. When I want to purchase a product, I shop for it. I have never purchased anything from a telemarketer. And I never will. Any telemarketer that calls me can expect a hang-up on their call. Consumers should have a right to privacy while in their home. Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law should be instituted nationwide.
